By reviewing these resources, students gain a clear understanding of the exam's structure, content areas, and expectations for each section. The official materials are designed to align directly with the AP European History curriculum, making them a reliable starting point for exam review.

Course and Exam Description (CED)

The AP European History Course and Exam Description (CED) outlines the major themes, historical periods, and skills assessed on the exam. This document is essential for mapping out a study plan and ensuring coverage of all required topics. Students should familiarize themselves with the CED to identify content gaps and focus areas. The CED also breaks down the exam format, including multiple-choice, short answer, document-based questions (DBQ), and long essay sections.

Score Reports and Sample Responses

Reviewing released score reports and sample student responses offers valuable insights into what graders look for in high-scoring essays and DBQs. These materials highlight effective writing techniques, proper use of evidence, and analytical skills that are rewarded on the AP Euro exam. Incorporating these examples into study sessions can help students understand rubrics and improve their own responses.
