ap human geography textbook pdf: Europa - eine Geographie Hans Gebhardt, Rüdiger Glaser, Sebastian Lentz, 2013-11-09 Europa – eine Geographie. Das gesamte Europa in einem Buch Europa – eine Geographie stellt die „Bühne“ vor, auf der wir Europäer uns bewegen. Sie will zum Verständnis des ökonomischen und gesellschaftlichen Handelns im Kontext ökologischer Folgen und Rückwirkungen beitragen und eine kritische Reflexion aktueller Diskurse um das „europäische Projekt“ ermöglichen. Eine solche, über die alltäglichen Aufgeregtheiten im Kontext der europäischen Finanzkrise hinausreichende geographische Darstellung scheint gerade derzeit notwendiger denn je. Europa ist mehr als die Summe seiner geographischen Grundtatsachen. Der Halbkontinent ist über Prozesse der Globalisierung eng mit der übrigen Welt verknüpft und hat über Jahrhunderte die Geschehnisse auch in fernen Kontinenten bestimmt. Bis heute ist Europa eine Projektionsfläche vielfältiger Erwartungen und Ziel internationaler Migrationsströme, aber zugleich auch ein „alternder“ Kontinent – nicht nur in seiner Bevölkerungsstruktur, sondern ebenso in seiner Rolle gegenüber aufstrebenden neuen Ökonomien wie den BRIC-Staaten (Brasilien, Russland, Indien, China). Obwohl flächenmäßig nicht sehr groß, ist Europa kleinteilig und bunt, kulturell und sprachlich vielfältig. Das vorliegende Buch stellt im besten Sinne des Wortes eine „geographische Erzählung“ Europas dar. Es widmet sich wirtschaftlichen und politischen, sozialgeographischen und ökologischen Perspektiven. Europa – eine Geographie beleuchtet nicht nur die Länder der Europäischen Union, sondern den gesamten Kontinent, auch die ehemals hinter dem „Eisernen Vorhang“ liegenden Staaten und Räume. In acht Kapiteln entfalten rund 70 Autoren ein faszinierendes Bild unseres Umgangs mit der Natur ebenso wie der politischen Geographie Europas in Vergangenheit und Gegenwart, seiner Bevölkerungs- und Wirtschaftsentwicklung, des Wandels europäischer Städte und Kulturlandschaften sowie der Rolle des Kontinents in einer globalen Zukunft. Europa – eine Geographie wendet sich an Studierende der Geographie und der Europa-Studiengänge sowie an Lehrer der verschiedenen Schularten, zudem ist das Buch von seiner Zielsetzung her auch für eine breite, an Europa interessierte Öffentlichkeit konzipiert und stellt die alltäglichen Nachrichten (z.B. über die EU und den Euro) in einen größeren Zusammenhang. In dem aufwendig gestalteten Werk werden die Texte durch zahlreiche aktuelle Grafiken, großformatige Bilder und eingeschobene Exkurse ergänzt und illustriert. Bereits beim Durchblättern erschließen sich die vielfältigen Facetten Europas. Die Herausgeber und Autoren: Hans Gebhardt hat seit 1996 den Lehrstuhl für Anthropogeographie an der Universität Heidelberg inne. Seine Forschungsschwerpunkte liegen in der Geographie der Verdichtungsräume, der Stadtgeographie und der Politischen Geographie, regional im Vorderen Orient, in Südostasien und China. Rüdiger Glaser ist seit November 2004 Lehrstuhlinhaber am Institut für Physische Geographie in Freiburg i. Br. Seine Forschungsschwerpunkte liegen in der Klimatologie, in der Global-Change-Forschung, der Umweltplanung und im Bereich der digitalen Verfahren und kollaborativer Forschungsumgebungen. Sebastian Lentz ist Direktor des Leibniz-Instituts für Länderkunde in Leipzig und zugleich Professor für Regionale Geographie an der dortigen Universität. Seine regionalen Arbeitsschwerpunkte liegen in den Nachfolgestaaten der Sowjetunion und in Europa. Beteiligt sind über 70 Autoren aus dem deutschsprachigen Raum. ap human geography textbook pdf: Bundeswehrreform und Konversion Laura Müller, 2013-11-29 Die im Jahr 2011 eingeleitete Neuausrichtung der Bundeswehr beinhaltet nicht nur eine Verkleinerung der Streitkräfte und die Aussetzung der Grundwehrpflicht, sondern sie umfasst vor allem auch umfangreiche Standortschließungen. Die betroffenen Gemeinden sehen sich nicht nur mit den Auswirkungen des Truppenabzugs, z. B. durch eine verringerte Kaufkraft konfrontiert, sie müssen auch Nachnutzungskonzepte für die Flächen erarbeiten. Laura Müller untersucht, wie die geplanten Nutzungen im Kontext beschränkter Handlungsspielräume der Kommunen einzuordnen sind und welche Rolle dabei bereits erfolgte Konversionen besitzen. Hierbei liegt der Fokus auf den Akteurskonstellationen zwischen den Gemeinden, den Landesregierungen und den Eigentümern der Flächen.

ap human geography textbook pdf: Food Sovereignty and Urban Agriculture Anne Siebert, 2022-07-08 This book analyses the interplay of urban agriculture and food sovereignty through the innovative lens of the critical urban food perspective. It focuses on the mobilisation of urban food producers as a powerful response to highly exclusionary dynamics in the agri-food system including insufficient food access and disastrous land disposessions. This volume particularly aims to fill the gap in the current literature by engaging with food sovereignty discourses and movements in urban areas. Related activism of urban food producers in the Global South remains underrepresented in practice and in literature. Therefore, this book engages with the lived realities of an urban agriculture initiative in George, South Africa. Building on theoretical notions of the right to the city and everyday forms of resistance, the book illuminates how deprived food producers expose inequalities and propose alternatives. The findings of in-depth empirical research reveal that dwellers perceive farming as a mean to overcome historical segregation, high food prices, and unhealthy nutrition. Hence, they breathe life into food sovereignty in practice and suggest further alliances beyond the city. The book will be of interest to scholars and students of alternative food politics, agrarian transformation, and food movements as well as rural-urban intersections.

ap human geography textbook pdf: Who Gives to Whom? Reframing Africa in the Humanitarian Imaginary Cilas Kemedjio, Cecelia Lynch, 2024-03-19 In this innovative volume, experts from international relations, anthropology, sociology, global public health, postcolonial African literature, and gender studies, take up Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o's challenge to see how Africa gives to the west instead of the reverse. Humanitarian assumptions are challenged by unpacking critical legacies from colonial and missionary genealogies to today's global networks of nongovernmental organizations (NGOs). Who Gives to Whom: Reframing Africa in the Humanitarian Imaginary is a decolonial gesture that builds on Ngũgĩ's work as well as that of pan-Africanist and intersectional feminist scholars. Contributions range from assessing the impact of historical legacies of colonialism on gender, religious/secular attempts at "saving" Africans to (South) African unrealized project to reconfigure foreign policy frameworks shaped by apartheid. Case studies of "silver bullet" solutions focus on the incorporation of women in peacebuilding, microfinance, and e-waste disposal, to argue that humanitarian interventions continue to mask ongoing forms of despoiling African well-being while shortchanging intersectional African forms of agency. "Chapter 1." is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License via link.springer.com.

The expert authors also emphasize the continuing importance of area studies within an interdisciplinary and global framework, applying its interdisciplinary framework to substantive issues in seven regions: Europe, East Asia and the Pacific, South and Central Asia, sub-Saharan Africa, the Middle East and North Africa, Latin America and North America. This new edition has been completely updated and substantially revised with two new chapters on Media, Sovereignty and Cybersecurity and Sustainable Development. ap human geography textbook pdf: The Routledge Handbook of Transformative Global Studies S. A. Hamed Hosseini, James Goodman, Sara C. Motta, Barry K. Gills, 2020-06-09 The Routledge Handbook of Transformative Global Studies provides diverse and cutting-edge perspectives on this fast-changing field. For 30 years the world has been caught in a long 'global interregnum,' plunging from one crisis to the next and witnessing the emergence of new, vibrant, multiple, and sometimes contradictory forms of popular resistance and politics. This global 'interregnum' – or a period of uncertainty where the old hegemony is fading and the new ones have not yet been fully realized – necessitates critical self-reflection, brave intellectual speculation and (un)learning of perceived wisdoms, and greater transdisciplinary collaboration across theories, localities, and subjects. This Handbook takes up this challenge by developing fresh perspectives on globalization, development, neoliberalism, capitalism, and their progressive alternatives, addressing issues of democracy, power, inequality, insecurity, precarity, wellbeing, education, displacement, social movements, violence and war, and climate change. Throughout, it emphasizes the dynamics for system change, including bringing post-capitalist, feminist, (de)colonial, and other critical perspectives to support transformative global praxis. This volume brings together a mixture of fresh and established scholars from across disciplines and from a range of both Northern and Southern contexts. Researchers and students from around the world and across the fields of politics, sociology, international development, international relations, geography, economics, area studies, and philosophy will find this an invaluable and fresh guide to global studies in the 21st century.

ap human geography textbook pdf: Dynamics of Economic Spaces in the Global Knowledge-based Economy Sam Park, 2014-09-19 This book addresses how economic spaces dynamically change within the context of the global knowledge-based economy. Specifically, it centers the discussion on integrated views of understanding and conceptualizing dynamic changes of global economy under the global megatrends of globalization, knowledge-based economy, information society, service world, climate change, and population aging. Focusing on East Asia, especially on Korea, it deals with case studies regarding the processes and patterns of these global dynamics, looking at economic spaces of various spatial scales and types of economic actors. This book develops a theoretical model for understanding and analysing the dynamics of economic spaces that are being reshaped within the larger global economy. It also emphasizes the analysis of empirical studies at the level of firm, region, and state by considering an evolutionary perspective over time. In developing its theoretical framework, this book examines regional resilience, intangible assets, service innovation, path dependence, and other notions related to the evolution of economic spaces, and incorporates these elements into real-world case studies. The integrated theoretical framework examined here contributes a new perspective on spatial disparities in the global economy. An integral model of service innovation; the integration of path dependence and regional resilience; the interaction between firm and region for the accumulation of intangible assets; and the roles of governments and global firms: these are all essential to understanding the dynamics of economic spaces in East Asia. The theoretical model and case studies in this book suggest policy implications for developing countries, especially in the Asian and African regions, with regard to regional development and innovation policies.
