cultural rituals textbook online: Practices in Children's Nursing E-Book Ethel Trigg, Toby Mohammed, Louise Ford, Hermione Montgomery, Vicky Vidler, 2010-06-17 The skills required by children's nurses are many and varied, and are undertaken in a variety of settings. Sick children are cared for at home, in children's units and hospitals, and sometimes in adult wards. In addition, children with disabilities may need nursing care while at special schools or in residential settings. This book provides a clinical manual of common practices. Each practice is research-based and presented in a common format which covers: - Objectives - Rationale - Factors to note - Guidelines - Positioning - Equipment - Method - Special observations and possible complications - References and further reading The guidelines have been written specifically for children's nursing by contributors from well-known children's units. cultural rituals textbook online: 105 Esoteric Traditions of the World — Book II: Forbidden Paths and Dangerous Teachings of the Hidden Orders: Cathars, Yezidis, Sethian Gnostics, Aghori, Left-Hand Tantra, Taoist Thunder Magic, Umbanda, Vodou, Qalandari Sufis, Mazatec Mushroom Path Laing Z. Matthews, 2025-09-20 Not all sacred knowledge is safe. Some teachings have been silenced, outlawed, or forced into disguise—not because they are false, but because they overturn the structures of control. Dangerous Teachings gathers fifteen lineages whose survival has depended on secrecy, exile, and the courage of those willing to carry wisdom that could not be spoken aloud. Across continents and centuries, these traditions have been branded as heresy, magic, or madness. Yet within them lie precise spiritual technologies—ways of seeing, healing, and awakening that confront the deepest fears of empire, orthodoxy, and conformity. This is not sensationalism. It is the reality of what happens when the sacred refuses to bow to power. In these pages, you will meet visionaries, ascetics, and mystics who kept the thread alive under threat of prison, exile, or death: Native American Church peyote roadmen keeping the night fire through prohibition. Romani dream-readers decoding fate under centuries of persecution. Siberian dreamwalkers retrieving lost souls when the state outlawed shamanism. Dagara diviners in West Africa speaking with elements and ancestors against the tide of colonial erasure. Kalachakra adepts preserving the “Wheel of Time” tantra through the destruction of Tibet. Forest Theravāda monks disappearing into wilderness to escape religious bureaucracy. Essene breath mystics whose desert rites survived in fragments. Golden Dawn adepts using ritual as a science of transformation, not spectacle. Assyrian Christian mystics guarding the Aramaic breath of Christ through genocide. Each chapter follows the same initiatory pattern: the core teaching of the tradition, the spiritual condition it addresses, its inner technology of practice, its symbol or image, and the key danger it faces—whether distortion, commodification, or outright destruction. Every section closes with a living practice the reader can try, and an image or parable to seal the teaching in memory. Dangerous Teachings is not a handbook for dabblers. It is a map for those who understand that real wisdom demands responsibility—and sometimes, risk. This is not the marketplace version of spirituality, stripped of its teeth. It is the unsoftened, unlicensed transmission of currents that have survived precisely because they refused to be made safe. Volume II continues the work begun in Guardians of the First Flame, shifting from primordial traditions to those forced underground by direct suppression. Together, the seven volumes of Esoteric Traditions of the World form an ark of memory—rescuing not just facts, but the living essence of ways of knowing that might otherwise vanish. If you read this book, you step into that ark. You take on a share of the responsibility to remember. And perhaps, if the time comes, to pass the fire on.

cultural rituals textbook online: The Science I Know Suzanna Roman-Oliver, 2024-07-08 The Science I Know: Culturally Relevant Science Lessons from Secondary Classrooms is a collection of culturally relevant lesson plans written by secondary science teachers. Each lesson discusses how the tenets of academic success, cultural competence and critical consciousness that are part of the theory of Culturally Relevant Pedagogy (CRP) are addressed (Ladson-Billings, 1995). Additionally, each lesson plan is structured following the 5E learning cycle (Bybee, 2006) and aligned to the Next Generation Science Standards (NAS, 2012). The goal of this book is to help science teachers understand how to go about designing lessons that are culturally relevant. The hope is that the lessons that are detailed in each chapter will inspire teachers to draw the cultural knowledge from their students and capitalize on it when designing science lessons. After an introductory chapter that discusses how science education has shifted in recent decades to address the needs of diverse students, the main body of the text is divided into three sections. The first part introduces Culturally Relevant Pedagogy (CRP) as a framework; this is important for those readers unfamiliar with Gloria Ladson-Billings' work. It addresses and discusses the three tenets of CRP (Academic Success, Cultural Competence and Critical Consciousness) and it includes an explanation of how each area can be observed and addressed in science education specifically. The second part features lesson plans from secondary science classrooms written by teachers from different subject areas (i.e., life science, physical science, earth science, etc.). The lesson plans follow the 5E Instructional Model (Bybee et. al., 2006). This model promotes inquiry by guiding teachers in the design of lesson plans that are "based upon cognitive psychology, constructivist-learning theory, and best practices in science teaching." (Duran & Duran, 2004). A brief snapshot of each teacher precedes each lesson plan. A discussion about how each of the CRP tenets is observed appears after each lesson plan. Finally, each plan featured has a section that addresses the concepts of Funds of Knowledge (Moll et al., 1992). This concept guides teachers in the process of identifying and maximizing students' cultural capital in the classroom. Each lesson plan chapter concludes with questions for further consideration for teachers. The last part of the book features best practices for teachers when preparing and planning to implement culturally relevant practices in their classrooms, as well as a lesson plan template for teachers. The Science I Know is not only essential reading for all science teachers interested in utilizing culturally relevant instructional practices in their classroom, but also a valuable tool in the instruction of pre-service teachers in Colleges of Education. The book's structure is ideal for classroom use. Perfect for courses such as: Foundations of Cultural Studies in Education; Education and Culture; Learner Differences; Secondary Science Pedagogy; Culturally Relevant Science; and Multicultural Education cultural rituals textbook online: Reading Actively in Middle Grade Social Studies Don K. Philpot, 2019-08-14 Middle grade students can learn a great deal about themselves and their world by reading informative texts in social studies courses. These texts will focus on important topics in history, geography, civics, government, and economics and offer students a range of perspectives on past and present social events. But reading is a complex act, and most students need specific reading-related support to understand assigned texts in middle grade social studies courses. This book focuses on the cyclical nature of reading, the actions proficient readers engage in to understand social studies textbooks and other informational texts, and the instructional support that teachers can provide to enhance middle grade students' learning of social studies content through reading. Three associated questions will be addressed in this book: •What actions do proficient readers engage in to understand assigned course texts? •What do these actions entail, and how do they relate to each other? •What teacher-mediated practices best support middle grade students' development as proficient readers and enhance their learning of course content through reading?

cultural rituals textbook online: Esoteric Traditions of the World: 105 Secret Paths to Buried Wisdom: Book I of VII: Bon, Kalasha, Kogi, San, Dreamtime, Sámi, Ainu, Tengerism, Mapuche, Ifá, Kemet, Vedic, Huna, Zoroastrian, Mandaean Laing Z. Matthews, 2025-09-20 Guardians of the First Flame is the opening volume in the Esoteric Traditions of the World series, a seven-part initiatory journey into the world's most profound, hidden, and nearly forgotten spiritual systems. This first volume is devoted to Earth's primordial lineages—those that emerged not from scripture or empire, but from dream, drum, fire, wind, and the breath of the living land. These are the root traditions. The spirit-keepers, fire-tenders, dream-trackers, and cosmological elders who shaped a sacred relationship between human beings and the seen and unseen worlds. Long before doctrine or hierarchy, there was transmission through symbol, song, and silence. These traditions are not remnants—they are living embers. And in this time of planetary forgetting, they burn with renewed urgency. This volume presents fifteen systems of sacred knowledge, each explored with spiritual reverence and cultural depth. The lineages include: Bon (Tibet): Sky-gazers and spirit-keepers whose cosmic vision shaped one of the world's oldest spiritual frameworks. Kalasha (Pakistan): A mountain people dancing between milk and myth, guarding a worldview of joy, nature, and embodied divinity. Kogi (Colombia): The Elder Brothers who never forgot—still warning us from the Sierra Nevada that we've lost our way. San Bushmen (Southern Africa): Healers and fire-carriers of the oldest continuous human culture on Earth. Aboriginal Dreamtime (Australia): The Songlines that created the world, and still sing its truth. Sámi Noaidi (Lapland): Shamans of wind and drum, whose trance journeys keep the Arctic sky alive. Ainu Animism (Japan): Bear-worshippers, river-singers, and survivors of an erased indigenous Japan. Tengerism (Mongolia): Sky-worship, shamanic flight, and the eternal blue canopy of the Mongolian steppes. Mapuche (Chile): Earth warriors and ancestral dreamers, rising again in the shadow of colonial trauma. Yoruba / Ifá (Nigeria): A living oracle tradition where the soul walks the path of destiny guided by Ori. Kemetism (Ancient Egypt): More than pyramids—this is Ma'at, cosmic alignment, and the geometry of the soul. Vedic Fire Priests (India): Ritualists of flame whose ancient chants awaken the structure of the cosmos. Hawaiian Huna (Pre-Missionary): Hidden knowledge of the breath, body, and sacred mana between islands. Zoroastrians (Iran/India): Fire temples and eternal truths from one of the world's earliest dualistic philosophies. Mandaean (Iraq/Iran): Gnostic baptizers of light, surviving through rivers, stars, and secret script. Each chapter is a doorway—not into a museum of old beliefs, but into living wisdom streams still pulsing beneath modern noise. Each system is approached with spiritual integrity, avoiding appropriation and stereotype, while emphasizing what can be responsibly transmitted and remembered. This is not a history book. Nor is it spiritual tourism. This is a torch-passing. The reader is invited not only to learn—but to remember. To remember what the soul already knows. To reawaken that quiet ember within—the one that responds when it hears the drum, smells the smoke, or feels the earth humming a language older than thought. Volume I is the foundation—the first flame—and prepares the reader for the deeper, darker, and more dangerous lineages that follow in later volumes. But without these roots, there can be no ascent. In a world of forgetting, this is a book of remembering. Let the first flame be lit.

cultural rituals textbook online: Cultural Practices of Literacy Victoria Purcell-Gates, 2020-07-24 This volume presents case studies of literacy practices as shaped by culture, language, community, and power. Covering a range of contexts and exploring a number of relevant dimensions in the evolving picture of literacy as situated, multiple, and social, the studies are grouped around four overarching themes: *Language, Literacy, and Hegemony; *The Immigrant Experience: Language, Literacies, and Identities; *Literacies In-/Out-of-School and On the Borders; and *New Pedagogies for New Literacies. It is now generally recognized that literacy is multiple and woven within the sociocultural lives of communities, but what is not yet fully understood is how it is multiple--how this multiplicity plays out across and within differing sociocultural contexts. Such understanding is critical for crafting school literacy practices in response to the different literacy sets brought to school by different learners. Toward this end it is necessary to know what those sets are composed of. Each of the case studies contributes to building this knowledge in new and interesting ways.
