free download comparative religion texts: Extra-Planetary Experiences Thomas James Streicher, 2012-03-19 Deep insights into human consciousness revealed by accounts of travel to other planets, moons, and stars • Includes interviews with 7 people who have had extra-planetary experiences, including astronaut Edgar Mitchell, Norma Milanovich, and Ingo Swann • Reveals the positive effects of these events on the interviewees' lives, from cosmic consciousness and loss of fear of death to enhanced spiritual insights • Contextualizes these accounts with 19th- and 20th-century reports as well as alien-human encounters in ancient Sumerian, Vedic, Egyptian, Tibetan, and biblical records Since prehistoric times all cultures report encounters with strange beings and crafts from the sky as well as stories of extra-planetary experiences--that is, travel to other planets, moons, and stars. In the case of modern accounts, these benevolent alien-human interactions bear striking resemblance to one another, even among people with no knowledge of other alien-human claims. And all experiences marked a spiritual turning point in the person's life, providing a loss of the fear of death, enhanced spiritual insights, a connection to cosmic consciousness, or increased motivation to be of service to humanity. Exploring fresh dimensions of ET contact and extra-planetary experience (XPE) using Harvard professor and researcher John Mack's witnessing approach to paranormal incidents, Thomas Streicher interviews 7 renowned people who have experienced XPE--including astronaut Edgar Mitchell, Norma Milanovich, and Stanford-tested remote viewer Ingo Swann--and shares the positive spiritual effects of XPE on their lives. Placing their experiences in the context of historical accounts of alien-human encounters from ancient Sumerian, Vedic, Egyptian, Tibetan, Hopi, Dogon, and biblical records as well as 19th- and 20th-century testimonies from Orfeo Angelucci, Billy Meier, Elizabeth Klarer, and others, the author reveals the similarities of these experiences with those of his interviewees. Streicher shows these experiences are not contrived hallucinations but genuine transformative spiritual awakenings akin to near-death and out-of-body experiences.

Excerpt: ... at Sacramento, which was to be made the base of a widespread and persistent propaganda. Should the enterprise be deliberately endorsed by the Buddhist authorities in Japan, it will be safe to predict that no mistake will be made in regard to the men chosen to engineer this formidable undertaking. Not any candidates, but only the pick of the candidates, --not ordinary qualifications, but only qualifications of a specially high order, --will be deemed sufficient to meet the exigencies of so exacting a demand. And if Christianity is to make any radical and permanent impression upon the great non-Christian world, --especially upon the educated and more thoughtful portion of it, --it must be remembered that no miracle is likely to be wrought on behalf of those who are too niggardly, or too indifferent, or too blind, to take the trouble to help themselves. Men must be secured who are fully competent and sufficiently sympathetic to guide and instruct those whose religious convictions sink deep, and who have not the faintest desire to substitute any new Faith for their own. Accordingly, Missionary Colleges of a distinctly superior order must be established and maintained, both in the homeland and in every foreign missionary field, if Christianity would hope successfully to hold and enlarge the place she now occupies among her numerous and powerful competitors. 3. As they bowed down in full prostrations to the ground once every three steps, they prayed for world peace and sought spiritual awakening. A collection of excerpts from the journal they kept, this book offers an honest and moving account of their journey as they relate their internal and external hardships as well as their interactions with their teacher, Master Hsuan Hua, and their awakenings. This book shows Buddhism in its true form: a practice to transform the mind and thereby the world in which we live. This 40th anniversary edition comes with a preface written by Jeanette Testu, daughter of the former Heng Ju who had returned to lay life.

Can you observe processes of textual standardization? What role does the oral transmission play? How are critical editions prepared? While these questions have produced a wealth of scholarly literature for each individual field, this volume is the first to study them from a comparative perspective.
