ORIGINS OF THE SETTLEMENT MOVEMENT

THE SETTLEMENT MOVEMENT HISTORY BEGINS IN THE LATE NINETEENTH CENTURY, PRIMARILY IN BRITAIN, AS A RESPONSE TO THE RAPID URBANIZATION AND SOCIAL INEQUALITIES BROUGHT ON BY THE INDUSTRIAL REVOLUTION. THE MOVEMENT EMERGED AS REFORMERS SOUGHT PRACTICAL SOLUTIONS TO THE POVERTY AND HARSH LIVING CONDITIONS PREVALENT IN DENSELY POPULATED CITIES. SETTLEMENT HOUSES WERE ESTABLISHED AS COMMUNITY HUBS WHERE MIDDLE-CLASS VOLUNTEERS LIVED AND WORKED ALONGSIDE IMPOVERISHED RESIDENTS, FOSTERING MUTUAL UNDERSTANDING AND SOCIAL IMPROVEMENT.

TOYNBEE HALL, FOUNDED IN 1884 IN EAST LONDON BY SAMUEL BARNETT AND HIS WIFE HENRIETTA BARNETT, IS WIDELY REGARDED AS THE FIRST SETTLEMENT HOUSE AND A CORNERSTONE OF THE SETTLEMENT MOVEMENT HISTORY. ITS MISSION WAS TO BRIDGE THE GAP BETWEEN SOCIAL CLASSES, PROVIDE EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES, AND PROMOTE CIVIC ENGAGEMENT. INSPIRED BY TOYNBEE HALL'S SUCCESS, SIMILAR INITIATIVES SOON SPREAD ACROSS BRITAIN AND OTHER COUNTRIES, LAYING THE FOUNDATION FOR A NEW WAVE OF SOCIAL ACTIVISM.

KEY PRINCIPLES AND IDEALS

CENTRAL TO THE SETTLEMENT MOVEMENT HISTORY ARE ITS GUIDING PRINCIPLES AND IDEALS. THE MOVEMENT WAS ROOTED IN THE BELIEF THAT SOCIAL PROGRESS COULD BE ACHIEVED THROUGH DIRECT ENGAGEMENT, EDUCATION, AND COMMUNITY-BUILDING. RATHER THAN OFFERING CHARITY FROM A DISTANCE, SETTLEMENT HOUSES EMPHASIZED THE IMPORTANCE OF LIVING AMONG THOSE IN NEED AND WORKING COLLABORATIVELY TO ADDRESS SOCIAL PROBLEMS.

CORE VALUES OF THE SETTLEMENT MOVEMENT

- SOCIAL EQUALITY AND JUSTICE
- COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT AND EMPOWERMENT
- EDUCATIONAL ADVANCEMENT
- PROMOTION OF PUBLIC HEALTH AND WELFARE
- CROSS-CLASS INTERACTION AND UNDERSTANDING

THESE PRINCIPLES SHAPED THE PROGRAMS AND ACTIVITIES OFFERED BY SETTLEMENT HOUSES, INCLUDING ADULT EDUCATION CLASSES, CHILDCARE, HEALTH CLINICS, VOCATIONAL TRAINING, AND CULTURAL EVENTS. THE AIM WAS NOT ONLY TO ALLEVIATE IMMEDIATE HARDSHIPS BUT ALSO TO FOSTER LONG-TERM SOCIAL AND PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT.

THE SPREAD OF SETTLEMENT HOUSES

SETTLEMENT MOVEMENT HISTORY QUICKLY EXTENDED BEYOND BRITAIN, FINDING FERTILE GROUND IN THE UNITED STATES AND OTHER INDUSTRIALIZED NATIONS. IN AMERICA, THE MOVEMENT GAINED MOMENTUM IN THE 1890s, WITH CHICAGO'S HULL HOUSE—FOUNDED BY JANE ADDAMS AND ELLEN GATES STARR—BECOMING THE MODEL FOR HUNDREDS OF SIMILAR INSTITUTIONS.

SETTLEMENT HOUSES ADAPTED TO LOCAL NEEDS, OFTEN SERVING IMMIGRANT COMMUNITIES IN URBAN NEIGHBORHOODS. settlement movement history: Violent History of Benevolence Chris Chapman, A.J. Withers, 2019-02-20 A Violent History of Benevolence traces how normative histories of liberalism, progress, and social work enact and obscure systemic violences. Chris Chapman and A.J. Withers explore how normative social work history is structured in such a way that contemporary social workers can know many details about social work's violences, without ever imagining that they may also be complicit in these violences. Framings of social work history actively create present-day political and ethical irresponsibility, even among those who imagine themselves to be anti-oppressive, liberal, or radical. The authors document many histories usually left out of social work discourse, including communities of Black social workers (who, among other things, never removed children from their homes involuntarily), the role of early social workers in advancing eugenics and mass confinement, and the resonant emergence of colonial education, psychiatry, and the penitentiary in the same decade. Ultimately, A Violent History of Benevolence aims to invite contemporary social workers and others to reflect on the complex nature of contemporary social work, and specifically on the present-day structural violences that social work enacts in the name of benevolence.

settlement movement history: The New American History American Historical Association, 1997 Originally released in 1990, The New American History edited for the American Historical Association by Eric Foner, has become an indispensable volume for teachers and students. In essays that chart the shifts in interpretation within their fields, some of our most prominent American historians survey the key works and themes in the scholarship of the last three decades. Along with substantially revised essays from the first edition, this volume presents three entirely new ones - on intellectual history, the history of the West, and the histories of the family and sexuality. The second edition of The New American History reflects, in Foner's words, the continuing vitality and creativity of the study of the past, how traditional fields are being expanded and redefined even as new ones are created. Author note: Eric Foner is DeWitt Clinton Professor of History at Columbia University. He is the author of numerous books, including Reconstruction, 1863-1877 which was awarded the Bancroft Prize.

settlement movement history: Transnational Agency and Migration Stefan Köngeter, Wendy Smith, 2015-07-16 Migrants, both spatially and mentally, no longer settle in only one national territory but interact or move across borders regularly, profoundly challenging the nation-state and the image of society as a container. This volume explores the ways in which migrants, activists and professionals connect social worlds across national boundaries through a variety of social practices. The contributions from various disciplines - anthropology, economics, political and social sciences, educational studies and social work - illuminate the meaning of agency in situations where the capabilities of transnational actors are constrained by nation-states, their borders and social institutions. Based on a relational understanding of transnational agency which builds upon new insights and developments within transnational studies and network theory, this compilation of chapters presents transnational processes and developments in and across various regions of the globe - in East Asia, the Americas, the EU, Southeast Asia, Africa and Australia, in the borderlands of Mexico and the US, in the transatlantic space of the 19th-century fin de siècle world - in order to demonstrate the importance of gaining, assisting and expanding agency in transnational contexts.

settlement movement history: Remembering Social Movements Stefan Berger, Sean Scalmer, Christian Wicke, 2021-05-12 Remembering Social Movements offers a comparative historical examination of the relations between social movements and collective memory. A detailed historiographical and theoretical review of the field introduces the reader to five key concepts to help guide analysis: repertoires of contention, historical events, generations, collective identities, and emotions. The book examines how social movements act to shape public memory as well as how memory plays an important role within social movements through 15 historical case studies, spanning labour, feminist, peace, anti-nuclear, and urban movements, as well as specific examples of 'memory activism' from the 19th century to the 21st century. These include transnational and explicitly comparative case studies, in addition to cases rooted in German, Australian, Indian, and American history, ensuring that the reader gains a real insight into the remembrance of social activism across the globe and in different contexts. The book concludes with an epilogue from a prominent Memory Studies scholar. Bringing together the previously disparate fields of Memory Studies and Social Movement Studies, this book systematically scrutinises the two-way relationship between memory and activism and uses case studies to ground students while offering analytical tools for the reader.

settlement movement history: Planning with Neighborhoods William M. Rohe, Lauren B. Gates, 2017-10-01 Neighborhood planning programs involve citizens in developing plans and self-help projects for their neighborhoods through local organizations. They also assist residents in reviewing projects developed by city agencies. Based on a survey of fifty-one neighborhood planning programs and in-depth case studies of Atlanta, Cincinnati, Houston, St. Paul, Wilmington, N.C., and Raleigh, Planning with Neighborhoods offers the first comprehensive description and evaluation of the effectiveness of these programs. Moving beyond theory, this study reviews the actual accomplishments and limitations of neighborhood planning programs and offers specific recommendations for designing a successful program. Included are a thorough history of neighborhood planning programs and an examination of the social, political, and planning theories that support their existence. Eight propositions on the benefits of a neighborhood-based approach to planning are derived from this theory and evaluated on the basis of actual experience with this type of program. Speaking to both academics interested in neighborhood issues and planning practitioners, Planning with Neighborhoods concludes with recommendations for establishing effective neighborhood planning programs and improving existing programs. settlement movement history: Theatre with a Purpose Don Watson, 2023-12-28 This study of British amateur theatre in the inter-war period examines five different but interwoven examples of the belief, common in theatrical and educational circles at the time, that amateur drama had a purpose beyond recreation. Amateur theatre was at the height of its popularity as a cultural practice between the wars, so that by 1939 more British people had practical experience of putting on plays than at any time before or since. Providing an original account of the use of drama in adult education projects in deprived areas, and of amateur theatre in government-funded centres for the unemployed in the 1930s, it discusses repertoires, participation by working-class people and pioneering techniques of play-making. Amateur drama festivals and competitions were intended to raise standards and educate audiences. This book assesses their effect on play-making, and the use of innovative one-act plays to express contentious material, as well as looking at the Left Book Club Theatre Guild as an attempt to align the amateur theatre movement with anti-fascist and anti-war movements. A chapter on the Second World War rectifies the neglect of amateur theatre in war-time cultural studies, arguing that it was present and important in every aspect of war-time life. Don Watson builds on current scholarship and makes use of archival sources, local newspapers, unpublished scripts and the records of organizations not usually associated with the theatre. His work explores the range and diversity of amateur drama between the wars and the contributions it made to British theatre.

This wide-ranging volume revisits literal as well as metaphorical spaces in modern German history to examine the ways in which Jewishness has been attributed to them both within and outside of Jewish communities, and what the implications have been across different eras and social contexts. Working from an expansive concept of "the spatial," these contributions look not only at physical sites but at professional, political, institutional, and imaginative realms, as well as historical Jewish experiences of spacelessness. Together, they encompass spaces as varied as early modern print shops and Weimar cinema, always pointing to the complex intertwining of German and Jewish identity.

settlement movement history: Settlement Sociology in the Progressive Years Joyce E. Williams, Vicky M. MacLean, 2015-06-24 Settlement Sociology in the Progressive Years claims for sociology a lost history and paradigm only recently acknowledged for shaping the American sociological tradition. Williams and MacLean trace the key works of early scholar activists through the leading settlement houses in Chicago, New York and Boston. The roots of sociology as a public enterprise for social reform are restored to the canon through early research, teaching and social advocacy. The settlement paradigm of "neighborly relations" combining the visions of social gospelers and first-wave feminists will resonate for a renewed public sociology today. Key to this paradigm was the movement to settle in neighborhoods and become active in the struggle for social change in a period of rapid industrialization, immigration, and urbanization.
